Objectives:
1) Develop realistic awareness of the roles and responsibilities of a hospitality manager.
2) Unite theory with practice by performing exercises in a wide range of hospitality related skills in the field.
3) Analyze and assess yourself as a present and future hospitality employee and manager.
4) Learn to make a meaningful contribution to your hospitality operation.
5) Learn to work effectively with persons from various environments and cultures.
6) Demonstrate a working knowledge of the skills necessary for success in our industry including goal setting, career planning and customer service skills.

Method of Instruction: This course has two components, a supervised field experiences and a weekly seminar. The seminar will utilize discussions, handouts, exercises, guest speakers and related topics. Students are expected to bring into the discussions their current situations and work status. Oral presentations may be required during the appropriate week that a topic is covered. Students asked to present their papers to the class will receive 50 bonus points toward their grade.

Student Evaluation Process:

1) Each student will be required to prepare a presentation based on the topics given. The presentation should last between 8 and 10 minutes and can utilize powerpoint, video etc. The presentation must be accompanied by an outline of what you are covering that will be submitted to the instructor and it should bolster a position taken by the student in regards to an aspect or overview of the topic. Students must be able to source their material. For example: “what really motivates employees”. Topics must be sourced utilizing a minimum of three separate sources.
Total 10%

2) Each student will be evaluated by their employer, using the MCCC “Employer Evaluation” forms. The first evaluation will be due by the third week of class. The second employer evaluation (“Evaluation of Student Intern”) will be due upon completion of the field experience hours. You will not give you any other notice. It is your responsibility to get the evaluation form completed and submitted to the instructor. Proof of hours worked must be documented and the evaluator must sign these forms for them to be accepted by the school. You cannot pass the class unless these assignments are completed; Total 30% (15% each)

3) Your participation in class is required. You must read the required handouts, and library research materials. You will be able to earn up to 50 points per class for actual participation. NO credit is given for taking up space. Total 10%

4) A written self analysis must be completed by each student and this assignment is due the third meeting of the class. Total 10%

5) Job interview paper to be submitted based upon the specifications distributed and accompanied by an up to date resume and cover letter. You are required to turn in a signed business card from the people who interview you. Written report written (12pt font single space 2 page minimum) should compare and contrast the two interviews and include:
   - Appointment process
   - Length of interview
   - Who did the most talking
   - Best question response
   - Worst question response
   - Interviewer skills
   - Any notable similarities and differences between the interviews
   - Did you get or where you offered a job?
   - Interview styles
   - Overall impression of how well you did
   - Things you would do differently
Total 10%

6.) Written goals must be submitted by class 3. Total 10%

7.) Career Research Paper Each student will be required to prepare one written paper focusing on a career choice and how to be successful in that career. This career should be one which you are seriously considering. The careers can be related but not duplicated. Career choices should be goals you hope to achieve over the next 3 to 5 years. They can be achieved sooner but to be successful in your career area think of the ‘roadmap’ you would need to follow to not just reach your goals but how to be very successful in that career. Students must be able to source their material to back up their statements. For example you can state that to be a successful general manager at a hotel you need to earn a college degree. Statistics from sourced material need to back up that statement. Written papers must be a minimum of 1500 words. (approx. 3 1/2 pages single space) Please site sources and refrain from cut and paste from the web and expect to get a passing grade. Plagiarism will be reported to the academic standards committee and result in failing this course. Topics must be sourced utilizing a minimum of five separate sources.
