

MCCC SGA CLUB MEMBER CODE OF ETHICS

If this code is violated: the club/organization involved, the Club Advisor and the Director of Student Life and Leadership will confer and make a recommendation to the Student Government Association and/or the Vice President of Student Affairs, who have the final decision on the outcome.

Representatives must exemplify the student body's interests in his/her constituency in an unbiased manner.

Representatives must focus on the issues of debate action and not on the personalities.

Representatives must uphold the constitution of his/her club or organization and the SGA's.

Club/organization representatives must take responsibility for his/her actions and the actions of their club/organization members.

Representatives must remain open-minded and flexible in considering all viewpoints. Do not discriminate against any segment of our community.

All disciplinary and unethical issues will remain confidential until sustained.

Representatives must be dedicated and committed to the mission and goals of his/her club or organization.

Representatives must strive for objectivity and fairness at all times.

Representatives must provide accurate and honest information at all times, and not withhold information that will cause issues.

Representatives must utilize parliamentary procedure to ensure that the rights of all members are honored.

Clubs/organizations must have a sound financial accounting system for their funds that are entrusted to them.

Representatives may not use their position for the detriment of any other student.

Representatives may not ask for or accept preferential treatment from faculty or staff that would not be afforded to any other student.

Representatives may not use their position for personal financial gain.

Clubs/organizations will not hold an event without receiving permission from the Director of Student Life and Leadership and must notify the SGA Executive Board and Senate.

Clubs/organizations will not advertise an event until the event is approved and funds are secured through Student Life and Leadership.

Representatives may only sign in for one club/organization at each SGA General meeting.

Representatives must vote for the benefit of his/her club or organization and may not vote with his/her personal view.

Club/organizations may only use requested funds for their approved purpose.