

OHT 231 – Turfgrass Management I

Course Outline

Spring 2014

Description: Series of lectures and laboratory exercises designed to educate students in the science of turfgrass growth, development and maintenance.

Objective: To ensure students know how to establish and maintain turfgrass for residential and commercial applications. Includes identification and use of cultivars, seeding and sodding, insects and pests, fertilization, and irrigation methods.

Instructor: Jill Seymour
Email: jbseymour7@yahoo.com
Phone: 814.883.6855

Lecture:	Tuesday	6:00 – 7:50 pm	LA 231
Lab:	Thursday	6:00 – 7:50 pm	Greenhouse

Text: Turfgrass Management, 8th Edition, A.J. Turgeon

Grading:	50 Point Exams (2).....	100 Points
	Quizzes (10).....	100 Points
	Lab Exercises (5).....	50 Points
	Final Exam.....	50 Points
	Total =	300 Points

Bonus Points: The instructor reserves the right to offer bonus points at various times throughout the semester.

- - - Important Notes - - -

1. Exams, quizzes and exercises are given only during specified lecture or lab periods. There will be no makeups without prior arrangements or a physician's excuse.
2. The instructor reserves the right to adjust the syllabus throughout the semester.