

MetLife Online Seminar

Title Financial IQ: Personal Risk Profile (Virtual Workshop)
Date: Tuesday, March 31st
Time: 12:00 pm-1:00 pm
Where: ONLINE

Description:

Understanding your personal risk profile is critical to achieving long-term financial well-being. This non-branded presentation provides attendees with a seven question risk profile survey in which they score themselves. Based on their personal risk profile score, suggestions for potential asset allocation scenarios are offered. In addition, seminar asks attendees to consider their risk profile when making future decision about debt/equity, savings, insurance and employment. At end of discussion, audience should have enough knowledge to understand their own personal risk profile and how they can apply it in their lives.

This workshop will deliver through Zoom. Participants will be able to view all slides and materials virtually. In order to receive your link to attend this complimentary workshop.
